FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT:
Chris Newberry
cnewberry@gmail.com
612-940-5603

JACOB WETTERLING DOC 'ECHOES IN THE NIGHT' MAKES NORTH DAKOTA PREMIERE AT THE FARGO THEATRE

After national spotlight from July 17 '20/20' episode and a robust limited release across MN

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. — Sept 16, 2026 — The documentary Echoes in the Night: The Search for Jacob Wetterling will expand its regional theatrical run bringing the film to screens across several midwestern states with a weeklong run at the Fargo Theatre in Fargo, marking the first time the film will be shown to North Dakota audiences.

"The legacy of the Wetterling family and their love for their son have kept us motivated during the ten years needed to tell the story in Echoes in the Night," said director Chris Newberry. "We're so proud to finally be able to share the deepest account of what happened not only to a family but to a community. It was incredibly lucky that we started filming just as the perpetrator responsible for Jacob's abduction was apprehended, and it's a real privilege to have the Wetterling family embrace the film as we share how their work made the world a safer place for the next generation of children."

Excerpts from Echoes in the Night found a national audience as ABC's flagship investigative series 20/20 devoted a two-hour episode to the Jacob Wetterling story on Friday, July 17. The broadcast revisited the case with new insights, and featured an interview with director Chris Newberry. It is now available to stream on Hulu and Disney+.

Despite the film's humble origins, several factors such as broad interest in the Wetterling story, strong reviews, and great word-of-mouth have propelled Echoes in the Night through a six-week-and-growing regional release, reaching 28 screens across Minnesota, and now expanding to Wisconsin, South Dakota, Iowa and, of course, North Dakota. The run has included several sold-out showtimes and engagements extended by popular demand.

The film will play at the Fargo Theatre September 18-24. Tickets can be purchased here.

For residents of the area for which a drive to Fargo might be inconvenient, there are a few opportunities to see the film in nearby towns. Most notably:

- now through Sept 23 at the Odyssey Washington Square Theatre in Detroit Lakes, MN
- Sept 25-27 at the Lisbon Historic Scenic Theatre in Lisbon, ND
- Additional theater locations and screening dates are being scheduled. Check here for the most up-to-date listings.

Minneapolis-based filmmaker Chris Newberry is an acclaimed documentary director whose films have appeared at the Fargo Film Festival on several occasions. His work has aired on the PBS series America ReFramed and Independent Lens as well as several national and international television networks. A 2014 regional Emmy Award winner, his first feature-length documentary, American Heart, took home six film festival prizes and made its nationwide broadcast debut in 2015 on the PBS World Channel. His follow-up as director, Trusted Messenger, was translated into multiple languages and aired internationally on the Al Jazeera Documentary Channel. His feature as producer and cinematographer, Norah Shapiro's Time For Ilhan, premiered at the 2018 Tribeca Film Festival and earned an NAACP Image Award nomination, among other accolades.

To learn more about Echoes in the Night, visit https://www.jacobwetterlingfilm.com/

###